

NEWS OF THE WORLD AS FLASHED BY THE CAMERA

LEADING FIGURES IN THE TURKISH CRISIS

A. K. JENNINGS of Cleveland, rendered more thoroughly powerful than he is at present if Mustafa Kemal Pasha occupies Constantinople. Nevertheless the sovereign attends public thanksgiving services in honor of Kemal's victories.

E. O. JACOBS, general secretary of the American Y. M. C. A. in Smyrna has reached Athens with other American refugees. Jacobs reports all Americans connected with the Y. M. C. A. have been removed to places of safety.

RAOUF BEY, chief of staff to Mustafa Kemal Pasha, Turkish Nationalist leader, is the real head of the victorious Turkish army that has occupied the whole coast of Asia Minor and now threatens Constantinople.

CAPTAIN ARTHUR J. HEPBURN, chief of staff to Rear Admiral Bristol, American high commissioner at Constantinople, superintended the removal to safety of Americans caught in flame-stricken Smyrna.

"Miss America" Becoming Famous

Ever since Miss Mary Katherine Campbell of Columbus, Ohio, won the title in a recent national contest of "America's most beautiful girl," she has been sought after by artists, movie men and theatrical producers, all anxious to display the beauty to the public. Here Miss Campbell is shown sitting for a portrait by Joseph Cummings Chase, noted New York portrait painter.

Shuns Love for Fame

Miss Coro-Lee Reed, Little Rock, Ark., picked by Howard Chandler Christy as the most beautiful girl at the University of Illinois, has forsaken fame and a stage career. She'll wed Robert Earle, Morrilton, Ark., and live with him in an obscure country town.

An Old Soak

Thomas McCormack, attired in this pre-Volstead rig-out, captured first prize at the annual baby parade in Coney Island, N. Y.

All Hail to the Derby Winner

Jack Carroll won the second heat of the donkey derby at a holiday in Catterd, England. Then he spoiled it all by refusing to tell his weight. Guess it.

Flyer to Wed

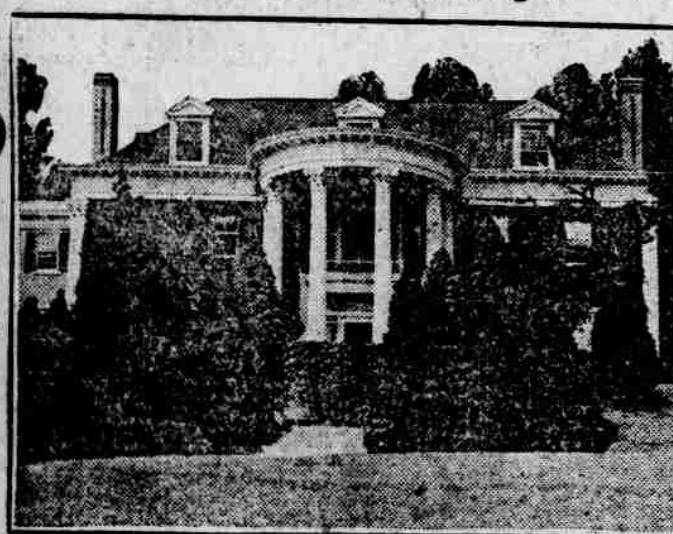

Captain Georges Thenault, daring flyer and former commander of the famous Lafayette Escadrille, will wed Paule Dumont, daughter of the French embassy's military attaché, at Washington this fall.

Georges Finds Tennis Rough

Georges Carpentier, heavyweight champion of Europe, finds that tennis is not so gentle a sport as he anticipated. The fists that have knocked out a lot of Europe's best boxers couldn't evade blisters when they gripped a racket. Mrs. Carpentier is shown here binding up one of the blisters.

King Constantine's Refuge?

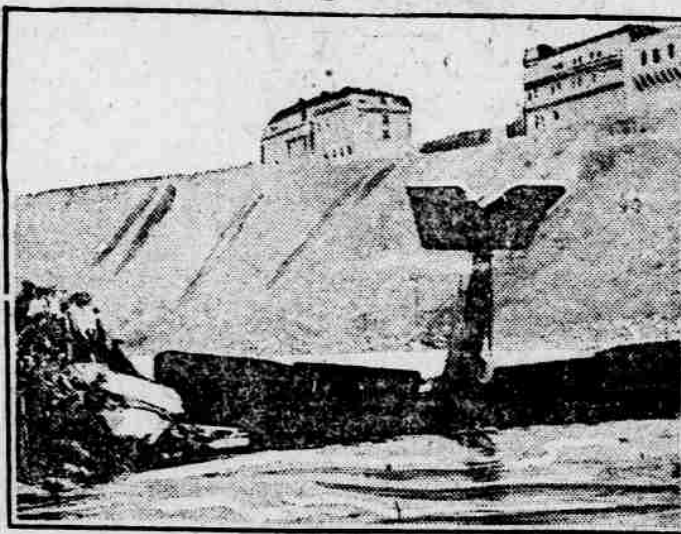

The Leeds home at Montclair, N. J., is said to have been offered as a refuge to King Constantine of Greece in case he abdicates, by his sister-in-law, Princess Anastasia, formerly Mrs. William B. Leeds.

Lady in Waiting

Lady Mulholland is the lady-in-waiting to Princess Mary, who recently married Viscount Lascelles. She is the daughter of Lord Dunleath, and is one of the most popular ladies in the court circles.

From Frying Pan Into Fire

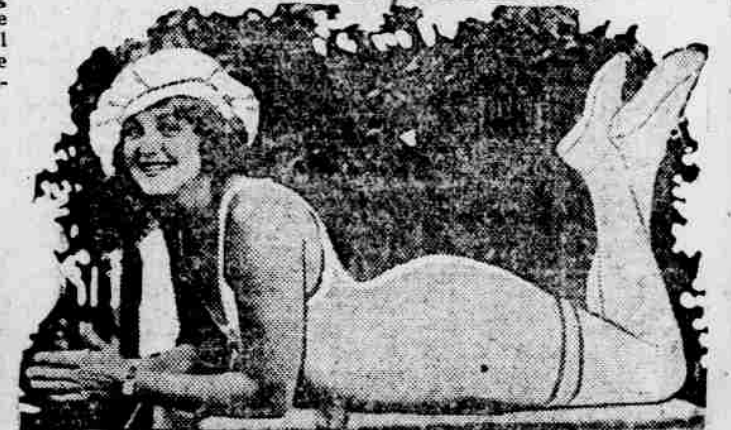

When this plane dived into the Spokane river, near Spokane, Wash., its occupants escaped without a scratch. But they were immediately arrested for violating an ordinance relative to distributing handbills!

Football Girl

Billy Dove, film star, dons grid-iron togs and tries to learn to tackle.

How They Grow in Alaska

Miss Holmar Lidermann of Juneau, Alaska, traveled 10,000 miles to represent the territory at the Atlantic City beauty pageant. She's 23, weighs 150 pounds, and is 5 feet 7 inches tall.

Daredevil of French Movies

Mademoiselle Ginette Barcourt is the girl who leaps from express trains and puts the other thrills in French movies. She's coming to America for a visit in a few weeks.

Russia's President a Worker

Kalinin, president of Soviet Russia, likes to get back to his farm duties when cares of state permit. Photo shows him sharpening his axe in readiness for work in the fields.

Victorious Turkish Cavalry in Advance

This is the first picture in America to give an accurate idea of Mustapha Kemal Pasha's cavalry, the wing of his army that has been most used in his rapid advance to within a few miles of Constantinople. Notice that some of the horsemen are equipped as regular troopers while others have the nondescript accoutrements of irregulars, brigands and marauders who attached themselves to the Turkish army as he crossed Asia Minor.

Singers in Discord

Luella Melnis, soprano, has applied for an injunction to block the proposed operatic concert tour of Ganna Walska, now the bride of Harold F. McCormick. The action is based on an alleged violation of agreement by Jules Dalber, operatic manager.